2020 UAccess Symposium
Tuesday, April 14, 2020

The 2020 UAccess Symposium, being held April 14, 2020, will bring together more than 400 University of Arizona executives, business managers, financial managers, and others who are interested in furthering the use of the University’s enterprise data systems in their workplace. The Symposium will provide a forum to discuss ideas, find resources, connect with colleagues, and learn about best practice approaches.

The Symposium provides a great opportunity for local and state business leaders to interact with attendees. We would like to invite you to participate by becoming a Symposium Sponsor.
